11th Annual
Louisiana 4-H Foundation
Golf Tournament
Friday, April 4, 2008
Tamahka Trails
Marksville, Louisiana

Louisiana 4-H is an educational program
of the LSU AgCenter

This year, our annual golf tournament travels north to another Audubon Trail golf course – Tamahka Trails Golf Club in Marksville, La. Tamahka's natural beauty cloaks an endless series of subtle, surprising challenges. Master golf course architect Steve Smyers coupled his "new-school" design with a passionate appreciation of Scotland's legendary courses to create 18 holes of pure perfection. Its numerous and often massive bunkers evoke a lunar landscape — and always require strategy.

Tournament Proceeds

All proceeds from the 11th annual tournament go toward expanding and updating the Grant Walker 4-H Educational Center in Pollock, La. Each year more than 5,000 4-H members attend Camp Grant Walker. Numerous improvements are continually made at 4-H Camp each year; many are due in part to the proceeds from this event.

What is 4-H?

4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship and life skills. In Louisiana, more than 175,683 youth, K-12 grades participated in 4-H last year.

4-H is the youth development and outreach program of the nation's land-grant university system and is operated in Louisiana by the LSU AgCenter. It seeks to help young people develop knowledge and skills that will benefit them, their families and their communities throughout their lives.
